The birth of a life—
reaching, searching,
cultivating an existence.

GROWTH
sneakily squeezes
inside the moments
between
BIRTH and DEATH.

She hides in the secret corners
of delicious moments
silences
frustrations
boredoms—
INSPIRATIONS!!
She catches us unaware . . .

Yet—
LIFE=CHANGE=GROWTH!
we must not fear CHANGE—
it alone is constant.

Earth spins
d i z z i l y and Life PULsates exuberantly!
even the breathless joy
of childhood.
a fragile bubble of innocence,
bursts

(POP!!)

leaving only
splashes of memories
to relive
to remember . . .

how magically new (yet HUGE and TERRIFYING)
the World seemed
to our young eyes,
when the Whole World
was a whirling, tumbling INTOXICATING
circus
of scrawled crayon smiles balloons
and promises.

YOUTH
is a time for exploring each other,
for hurting
and being hurt,

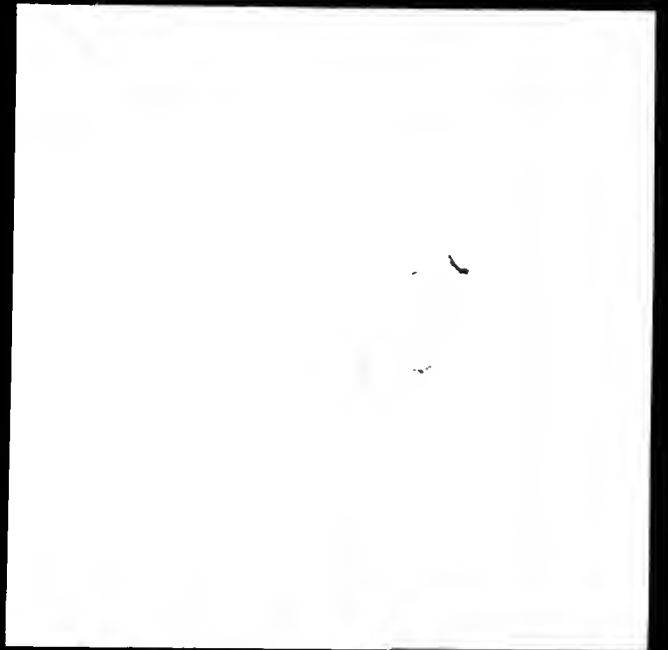

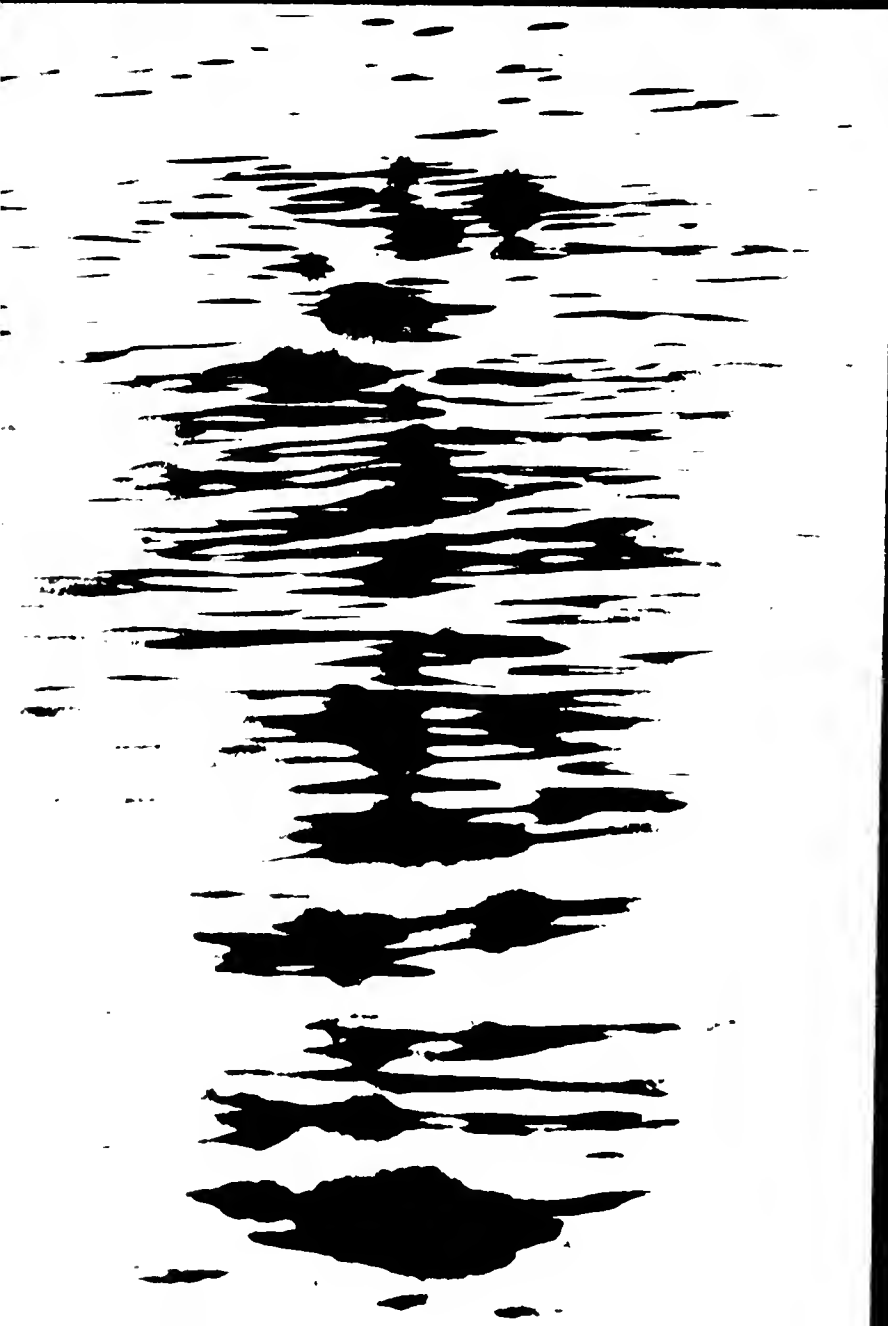

for sharing

and groping clumsily
toward secrets
still undiscovered.

YOUTH
is a time
for the seeds of ourselves
to grow
into our future.

how does a seed grow?
in the beginning,
bury in soil a naked
seed
(a tiny timebomb of livingness yet unborn)
sprinkle liberally with sunshine (thick as honey)
r
a i n warmth patience
and a smattering of magic.

soon
it will burst through the soil
EX P L O D ing
in a fireworks
of green!!

(this recipe
also works for human beings . . .)

we enter
alone,
swallowed by the barren
hallways,
MASSIVE INHUMAN STRUCTURES
and rooms that
reek of sameness.
even
the crowds
lean upon each other,
and
their faces blur.

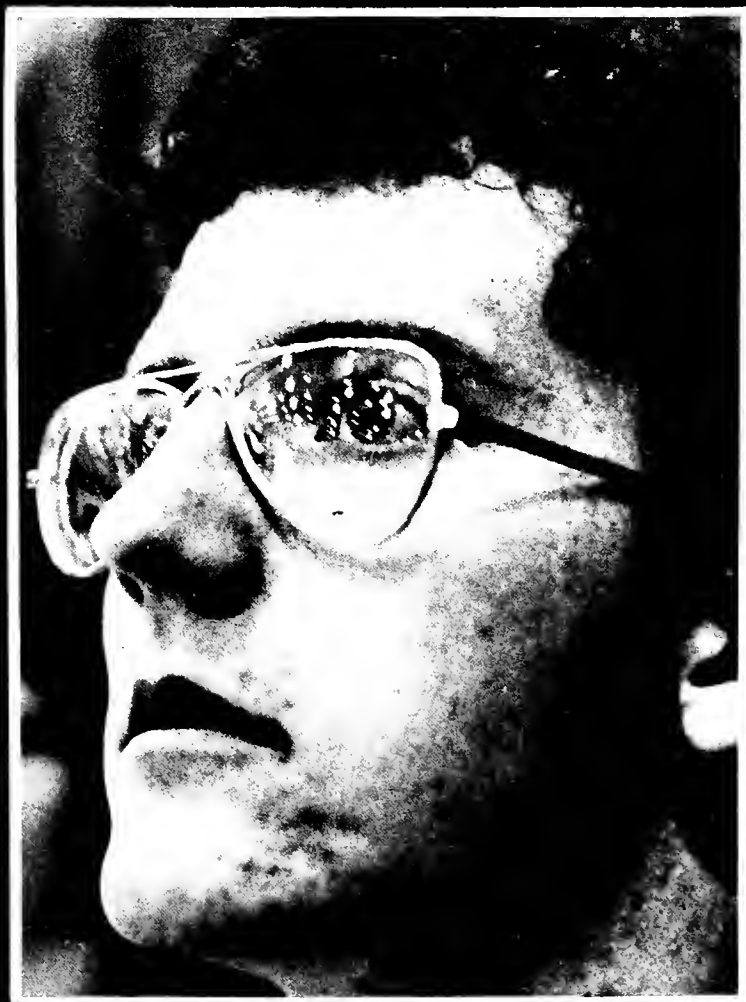

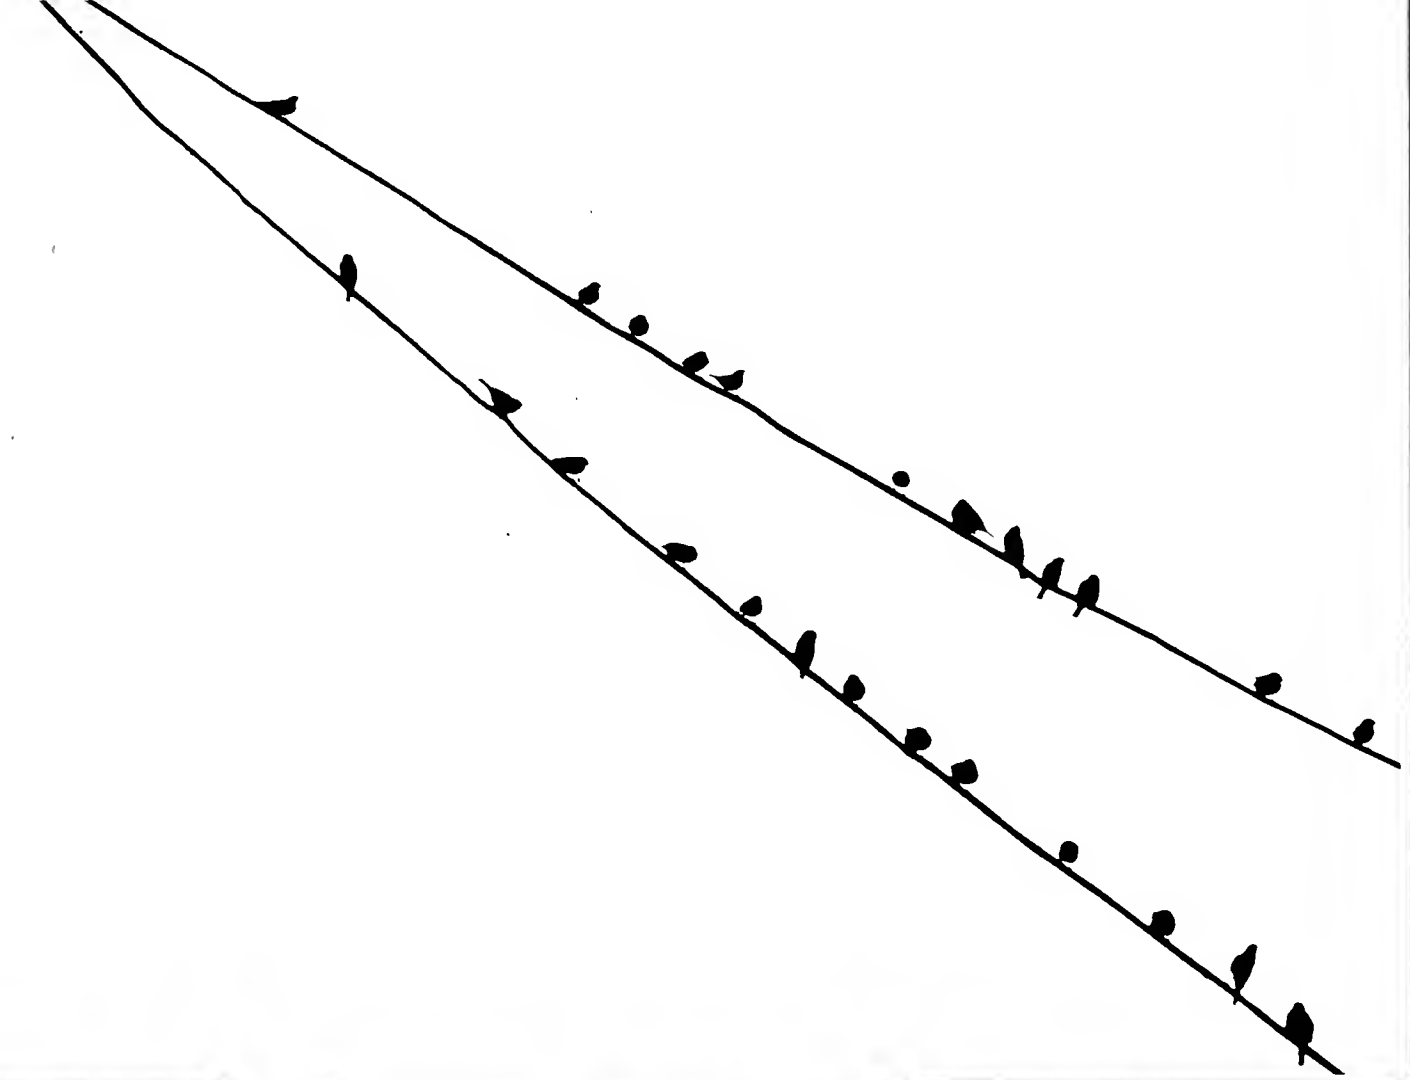

—but LOOK closely,
in the pockets of classrooms
You will discover
a few
whose lives have brushed across many,
nurturing the seeds . . .
and by some peculiar sorcery,
in spite of
confining walls,
blah rows of desks,
a silent
REVOLUTION
of GROWTH sneaks
into
those few precious
SPARKS
of discovery!
. . . and so are we
in constant change—

we escape the cocoon
of our old selves
and emerge
new.

like alice always in a dither
we can watch the world turn itself up
side
down—
it's all so contrary.
but you can't win if you're too afraid of losing.
EAT ME said a cake
DRINK ME said a bottle
but maybe it wasn't a cake
or a bottle
at all
maybe it was LIFE
shouting
at us weaklings
who never attempted to sit down
to dinner.

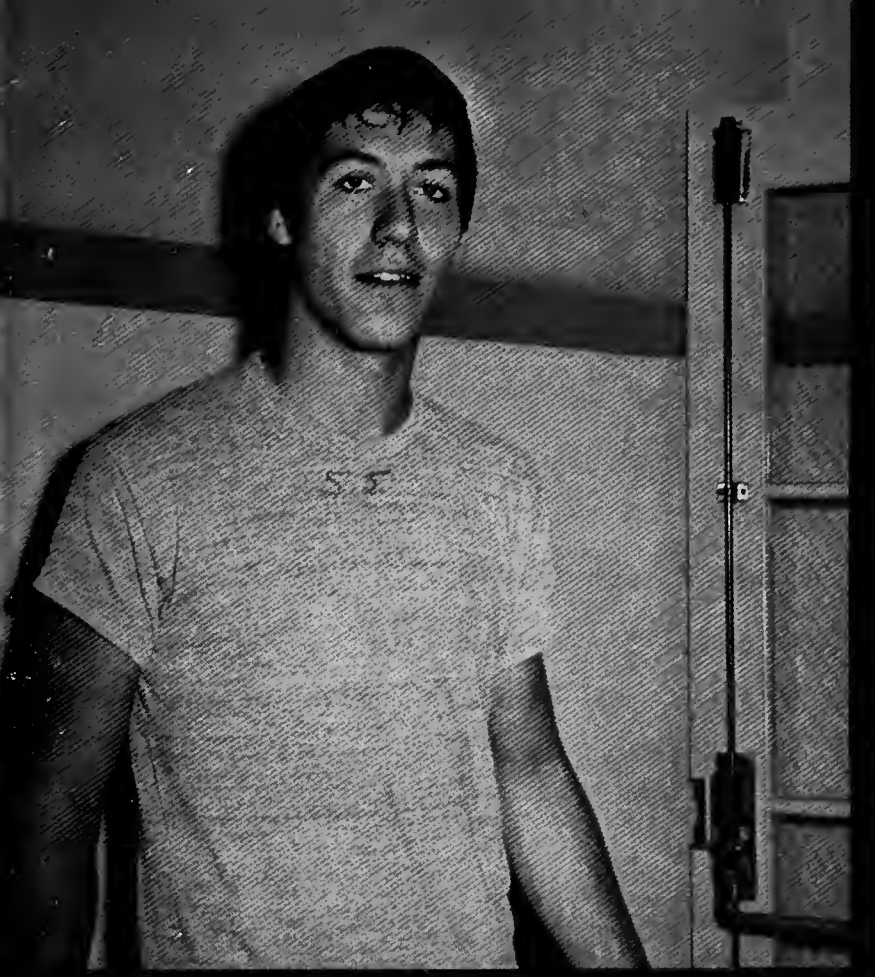

... no ... it isn't all pretty,
but somewhere
that wry bit of magic lurks, escaping
 in the laughter
 behind the smile of joy
and it opens us
 to the beauty of simple things,
 of birds on a wire,
 a memory,
or a sun drenching red
the soothing constant waters.

 we
who are not constant tread the footprints of our past
and find they do not fit
our new steps
yet
 with every dawn
 spilling
onto the earth is the promise
of a new beginning.

SENIORS

DECISIONSdecisionsDECISIONS
bombard
 the senior hurtling headlong down the final stretch
of a long journey,
the senior who barely
pauses to catch a breath or regain
a sense of DIRECTION . . .
he fluctuates
 between
apathy and nostalgia—
gleefully cutting classes
dodging hallguards
he finds a perverse pleasure in outwitting THE SYSTEM
that binds him too long
to rigid patterns.
Within himself—
echoes of dissent—
eagerly awaiting a FUTURE
yet savoring the final elusive
moments of a fleeing reality, cultivating memories
among friends.
Facing outward—
 ready to surge FORWARD
. . . yet fearful of the unfamiliar.
THE SENIOR (a paradox)— standing at the threshold of a NEW TOMORROW, waiting
 to escape
through the June doors!

St. Luke Bless Us . . .

He hates it, but he uses it!

A Parable

Once upon a time in a very nice suburb lived a very nice man named Charlie Swift, his lovely wife, Julia, and two beautiful, well-behaved children.

Charlie worked as "expansion manager" of a large manufacturing plant, and every day, 9 to 4:30, Charlie slaved, worried, and sweated at his desk. And every so often THE BOSS would press him for EXPANSION, PROFITS, BIGGER...(STOP!!)

... and sometimes (if he wasn't careful) Charlie wondered just exactly WHAT he was breaking his back for! Was he REALLY happ- but he quickly buried the thought! That wasn't the way for a PROGRESSIVE MAN to look at things! Still... his eyes strayed to the vacant lot out his window, where a tiny boy was watering a flower.

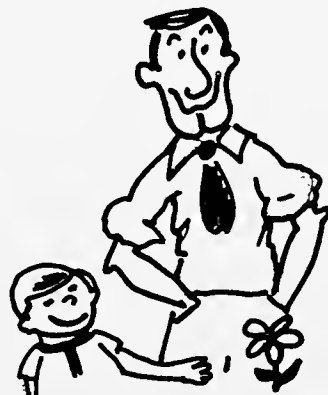

One day THE BOSS came to Charlie, and growled: "CHARLIE, IT'S TIME TO EXPAND! GOTTA KEEP PROFITS JUMPING! BUILD ON THAT VACANT LOT! MONEY DOESN'T GROW ON TREES, YA KNOW! HA! HA! HA!"

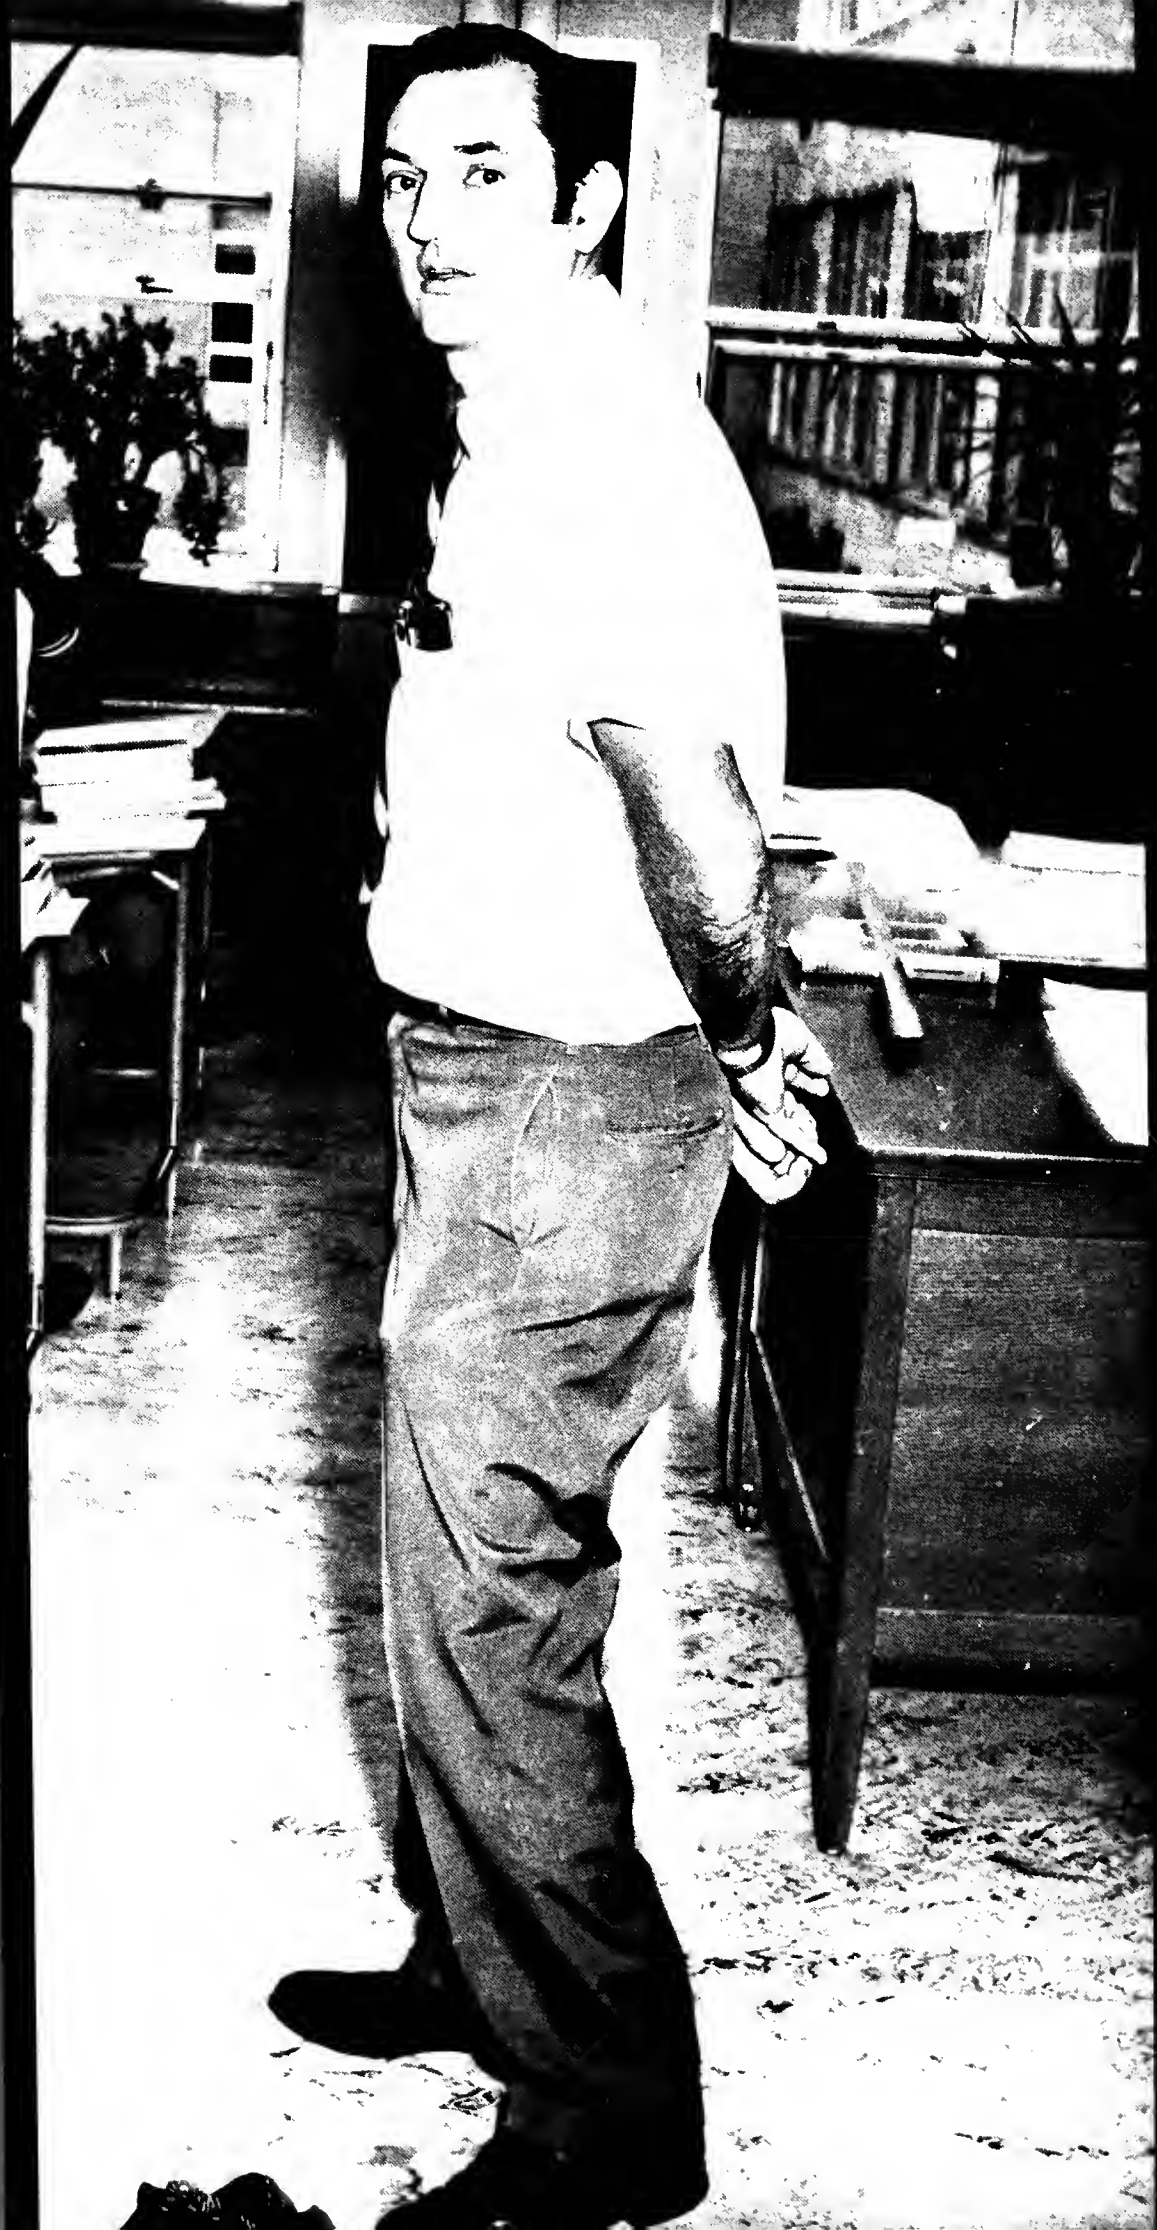

So... Charlie stepped outside and approached the smiling boy. "A very nice flower," Charlie said, "but it can't stay here! We're building a FACTORY here — more JOBS, OPPORTUNITIES, to make the land USEFUL, PROFITABLE! We need room to GROW!! It's more important than one..."

"But my flower IS important!! I grew her from a seed — she depends on me for water and attention, and as I watch her grow, she teaches me many things. I see how she changes with the seasons, bends in the wind. She is so beautiful — she makes me smile. Your concrete and glass will never make anyone smile."

Charlie listened and thought — and concluded that he had met a very sensible boy. "Maybe the most important growth doesn't happen with bricks and mortar, and can't be measured in dollars and cents," thought Charlie, and he smiled as he looked again at the flower, realizing that he finally understood her secret.

“As the twig is bent, so grows the tree.” As students are taught to think, so grows a mature and stable society.

Growth is everywhere. Students grow as they learn from a curriculum suited for each individual. Students grow as they participate in a varied number of activities at Euclid Senior High School. Students grow as they serve and help others.

We hope, as you have taken advantage of the many opportunities offered at Euclid Senior High School, that your growth has been progressive, rewarding and long lasting.

Congratulations on a fine year and my best wishes for a profitable and happy future.

Deans = Discipline

Discipline + Guidance = SUCCESS!

Emotion Captured

Words! The building blocks of society.
 But the thoughts of GRAMMAR!
 And ORAL REPORTS! And TERM PAPERS!
 Never cease to drum up moans and groans,
 How about experiencing A DAY IN THE LIFE OF—"Cyrano de Bergerac" or "Macbeth" or even a "Greek God!"
 So—maybe Coleridge was an opium addict, maybe Dylan Thomas was frequently drunk, maybe Ben Franklin had "children" throughout the world. . .
 But they brought us literature,
 Emotion—captured in an instant.

Pucker Power

Well-padded players swinging funny-shaped sticks attack a little flat ball. Echoes of hard sound—wood on wood (clack!) wood on ice (thud) wood on shins (ow!) Suddenly—CLOBBER! Pow! Bash! Screeeech! 5 minutes in the penalty box! Hockey—fast, wild, often gory, (without glory), a clash of icy violence—exploding tempers, bruised shins, broken bones, and bloody victory.

Run—What Else?

So, you're an athlete. You've got time to spare. You want to condition your already beautiful body. What do you do? Why, you run 500 miles—WHAT ELSE? Not all at once, but spread out over months, every minute spent sprinting—Six miles, to and from school. "Wheels" become almost obsolete—Instead, YOU RUN! No fancy rewards or glory-filled recognition, only vigorous physical conditioning and self-satisfaction.

500 Mile Club Bottom Row (L to R): Kevin Lewis, Jeff Johnson, Steve Kastreba, Vic Szabo. Row 2: Art Gold, Bob Day. Row 3: Rich Day, Mark Sullivan, Walt Zmijewski.

Odd Podge

Meet Oscar.
 Oscar is a sportswriter.
 Oscar is a slob.
 Enter Felix.
 Felix is a fanatic about dirt.
 Felix is fortune's foe.
 Hear the poker-fiend friends.
 Hear them insult Oscar.
 Watch them grit teeth at Felix.
 Observe the Pigeon sisters.
 They flit about. (Birdbrains!)
 See Oscar fling the linguine.

NHS: Mark of Excellence

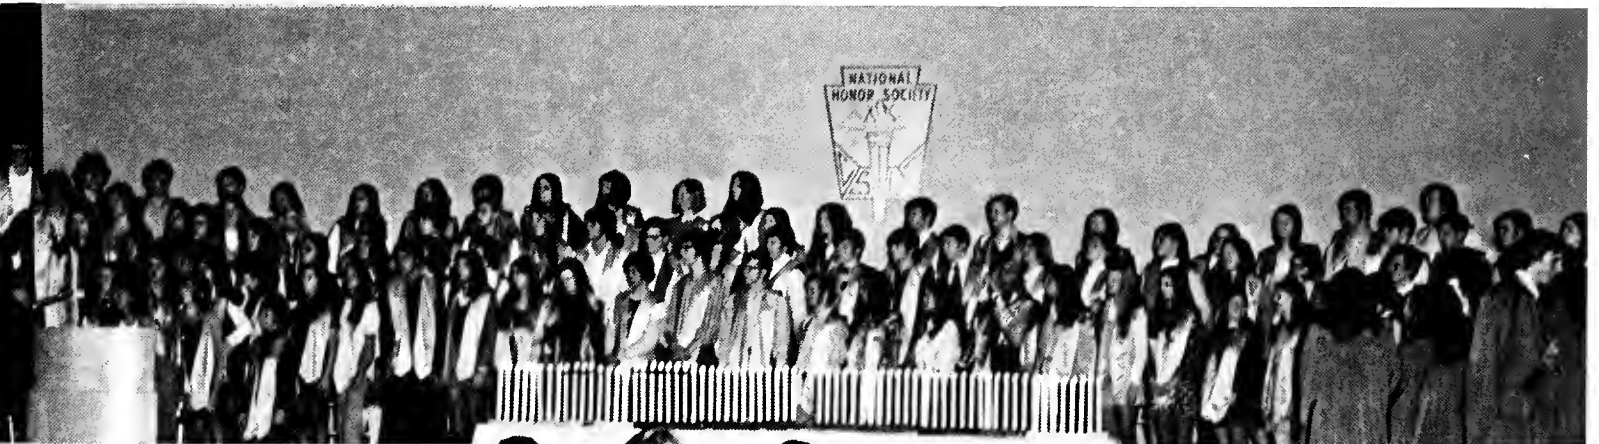

Like an anxious 18 year-old listening to the draft lottery, waiting, wondering, wishing . . . names called off in an "eenie-meenie-minie-moe" fashion; your cue at last! Remember your instructions: shake hands, turn on candle (to the right!!!), receive your pin and stole, and take your place on the risers. " if so, answer 'I do'" You are now a member of National Honors Society, a part of the assembly line of blue-robed intellectuals.

They want me?

Cool Chick!

"We re-fuse!"

"LET THERE BE LIGHT!"
 Someone said—and so it was (especially opening nights) . . .
 Manipulators of the "limelight" fumble in the shadows of backstage.
 "Flash light #3 on center . . . SHHH!!"
 "More bluish tinge—less red!"
 tangled wires, broken circuits—POP! (oops)
 "What do you MEAN we blew a fuse?"

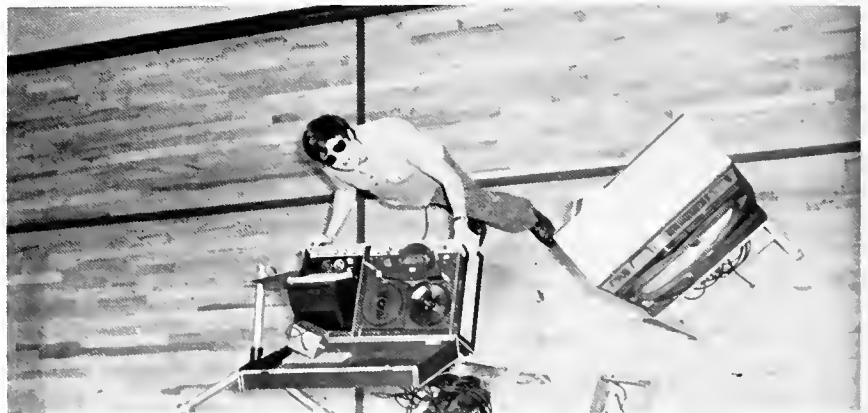

Spectrum Club Bottom Row (L to R): Pat Gmeiner, Beverly Vercellino, Debbie Yandala, Kitty Knox. Row 2: Karen Kloder, Maryann Zupancic, Beth Fike.

Dive for Paint

A mad dive for paint!
 "HEY! I'll trade ya blue for green!"
 A hundred hands grabbin' for brushes, unravelling reams of white newspaper,
 a canvas for cliches and inspirations!
 "DESTRIPe THE TIGERS?" (ugh)
 (All censored by a careful Clara.)
 A caterpillar of colors
 squiggles between crowded corners.
 Banners of spirit
 (sometimes initialed by their makers) signify that sports-mania lives on
 at Euclid.

Metal Sculpturing Club Bottom Row (L to R): Robert Csank, Nancy Hunton, John Germock, advisor, Nancy Battista, Tom Thompson. Row 2: Kevin McCullough, Marian Powell, Nancy Thompson, Barb Lowe, Holly Stump, Jean Raganof. Row 3: Ellen Sioers, Laura Plesko, Sherrie Saiter, Marian Weissfuss.

Torch Art

Molding the COLD and RIGID into a delicate bursting bloom.
A mobile,
an expression of inner emotion.
Blow torches
Hammers
Ovens
Tools, hands, mind unite
To contrive
an illusion of Reality
or Imagination.

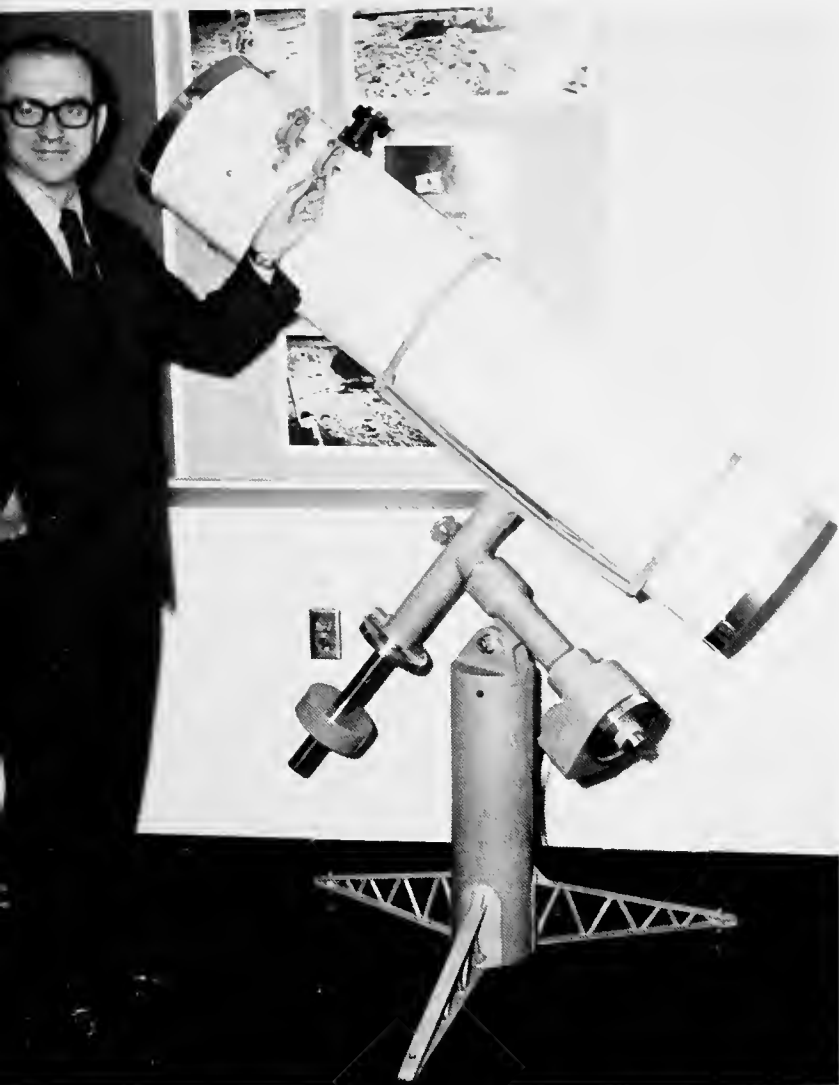

Ping Pongthers

It's all in the wrist action—Plop! Plop!
Lollipop-shaped paddles slap a small white sphere over a tiny net.
Ping P-O-N-G, Pong P-I-N-G!
A popular game, both in foreign affairs and at E.H.S.!
Pingers and Pongers perfect their game and serves.
Who knows, perhaps E.H.S. has a future U.S. Ping Pong Ambassador—
On to Peking? . . . the Olympics?

Stars in his eyes . . .

Windowless
with but one escape valve;
a chamber of inky blackness suddenly
erupts into a pulsating ceiling
of universe,
enveloping you, opening your senses.
The Planetarium,
Euclid's costly gem,
a space odyssey kept ship-shape
by Mr. Francetic
and his unique mixture
of creativity and astro-knowledge.

Planetarium supervisor: Mr. Francetic

P-L-E-A-S-E

"EXACT change, please!"
"EXACT CHANGE, P-L-E-A-S-E!!" Words of warning remind the nylon-rippers, cough drop smugglers, folder freaks to be ready . . .
"Do you have Hamlet in yet?"
"Yes! In fact, you just made it!
We have only one book left!"
". . . oh . . . swell . . ."
The SUPPLIER—
arming the school with the "stuff" it needs to meet a day of mind expansion.

Wai Not?

Wai Napolo?

Because . . . After—hearing "Parisian Holiday" 1000 times, cramped toes, knees, tempers,
 Patriotic red, white, and blue suits,
 Chlorinated bodies,
 Soggy sinuses,
 Splashy formations,
 "Little sisses,"
 Arguments and friendships,
 Disorganized ORGANIZING meetings,
 Stunts (aquatic and/or otherwise)
 . . . 39 aquarians love it all.

(Push) Splash!

A shaky toe wiggles
into the deep end.
An abundance of excuses follows—
“my mascara will run if i . . .”
(push) SPLASH!!
A persuasive voice repeats—“C’MON, YOU CAN DO IT.”
“TRY KICKING HARDER . . .
POINT YOUR TOES.”
“but I’m a born sinker!”
“JUST TRY YOUR BEST!”
“what time do we get out?”
A whistle blows
and soggy forms crawl onto the deck.
“shallow end? ALL CLEAR!”
“deep end? ALL CLEAR!”
Your eyes? all bloodshot!!!

Capped Concentration

The GIRL’S Meet . . .
One, Two, Three—Ugh!
Nothing left behind but a board and weeks of Mon—Wed—Mon—Wed . . .
Practice!
Tight caps bind the heads to concentration, and coordination of legs, arms, neck, nose into the Butterfly, Crawl, Backstroke
Cleveland Heights—Win!
(and Miss Brown lands in the water.)

Leaders Meet

When leaders meet . . .
Student Council undertakes to organize an LEL conference—S.C. people from 12 schools rap informally, exchange IDEAS, suggest, search routes for constructive CHANGE and ACTION!
A quest for renewed relevancy!
Jabbering discussion groups dot
the Little Theatre—
"What ABOUT student rights?— Which? How many? To what extent?"
"How can you be responsive to your student body?"
"How can you combat APATHY???"
A landslide of questions,
a few answers,
and deeper insight into the potentials of
STUDENT POWER.

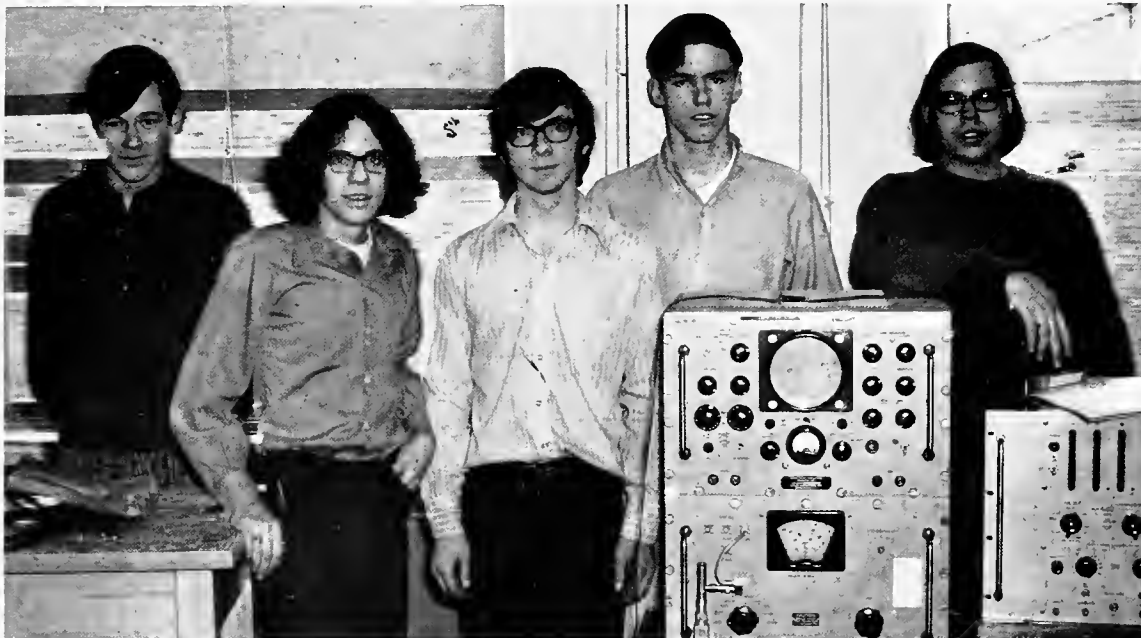

Chess Club (L to R): Dave Erdelac, Jim Hagy. Row 2: Dave Berch, Stoyan Lokar, Ed Cook, Joe Zuzek, Eric Rasmussen.

Where Queen Is King

Mind against mind,
 move against move,
 a fight to the finish on a checkerboard battlefield.
 Up, across, over, and sideways—
 pawns, knights, rooks,
 bishop, king, QUEEN—
 a relentless army.
 Chessmen struggle for #1,
 individually and as a team.
 Collinwood tournament—
 and Euclid's Queen
 BEHEADS the enemy.

Radio Club (L to R): Mark Fisher, Ron Wolenski, Dave Burns, Rick Berry, Greg Podnar.

Hamming it!

How does one become
 a licensed "ham"?
 How does one send waves through space at 30 million meters a second?
 How does one hear foreign tongues,
 secret codes, LOCAL GOSSIP??!!
 Join the specialized eavesdroppers
 —and you'll find out!!

Dollar$$

Undercover agents—
 Pushers pouncing on an unprepared senior,
 "You're a senior this year, so buy!"
 Trudging through the malls,
 "Would you care to buy an ad for our yearbook?"
 From cash counters to advertisement models—
 Battling the war against deadlines, leading the crusade for $$.

Editors (L to R): Amie Balale, Janie Cowan, Carmen Edelbergs, Scott Somers, Sue Winters, Editor-in-Chief; Nancy Elze, Grace Hommel, Assistant Editor.

We started with an idea,
 a theme (growth),
 30 eager staffers and mountains of blank copy sheets, unshot film, bare dummy sheets, unimagined I.D.'s sneering "just try to make a EUCLIDIAN out of us!"—
 and so, in a cluttered yellow office
 we called "home", THE BOOK was born.
 . . . it was a year of insanity in the office, Club-Burgers, 3 a.m. work parties and lost copies, edgy deadline tempers, tears—
 a year for friendships, maturity, zany parties, gut creativity, PRIDE, Cavorting in a dying Euclid Beach, growing together, seeing our "seed"
 unfold in the "leaves" of EUCLIDIAN.

UNDE RCLASS

without roots
 he gropes through a swarming sea of faces
 engulfed
 in the tides
 of the crowds
 until he clings tightly onto something CONSTANT—
 a small circle of friends, a quiet place for solitude.
 The security of the clique
 blunts the urgency
 of his search for . . . himself
 . . . time overabounds
 he drinks fully his newly won freedom
 and is swallowed into the intoxicating
 c h a o s, s tumbling
 upon clues
 to HIMSELF
 as a whole being (yet aching to belong), wrestling with the pains of gROWING—
 heeding little the distant heeding little the spectre of the future.

Accomplishing the goal to produce an imaginative yearbook requires the loyalty, special talents, and extra time of all staff members. Cooperation from everyone in the school is also very essential. Thanks to the students, clubs, coaches, faculty, and all with whom we scheduled pictures for their patience, especially when conflicting situations arose causing the pictures to be re-taken.

Congratulations to those of the staff who cared enough to put in the great amount of work and time into their special contributions to the book. We experienced many different moments together, some happy and funny mixed with some confusing and worried times, but finally our deadlines were met before the post office closed at 5 o'clock. It's amazing how many hours we spent on this book after school and on weekends and the amount of Carroll's hamburgers and cokes we consumed during this time. Being one of the seven editors means added responsibilities along with more frustrations. We really needed the organization, and the ability of a great worker, our Editor-in-Chief, Sue Winters, to keep us moving through the year to get our assignments done on time. Anyone acquainted with her this past year knows how devoted she was to this book. We also appreciate the help of the Business Staff and our two sponsors.

Now that you have the finished product, the '72 Euclidian, I hope you will take the time to read the copy, laugh at the captions, recall events from glancing at the many pictures, fulfilling the purpose of a yearbook!

Sincerely,
 Grace Hommel
 Assistant Editor

GROWTH was a common word in the Euclidian office this year; especially we who compiled the book have grown, not only in knowledge but also in the understanding of people and relationships. There are no words to express the feelings and thanks which go to you, the editors, Grace, Janie, Nancy, Scott, and Amie. For us the book says it all. With each page a moment is remembered: a laugh, a scream or perhaps even an outburst of tears. My special thanks go to all those who dedicated their time and patience to the making of this book, and to Ed Purnell for helping me keep my sanity. To this year's Juniors on the staff, I can only say that I wish you the best of luck for next year.

Miraculously, in spite of lost pictures, retyped copies, torn layouts, and late ID's, this yearbook has become a reality. The efforts of Mr. Dickinson and the Business Staff in procuring financial support are greatly appreciated. We could never have produced a book at all, were it not for the help and understanding of Mr. Morrie Levine of Raimor Studios and our representative, Mr. Bert Coburn of Inter-Collegiate Press. Special thanks go to Mr. Robert Hall, our advisor, for his patience with our spelling and grammar mistakes.

Now, as I present this 1972 Euclidian to the student body of Euclid High, I admit there were times when I seriously doubted the validity of having a yearbook. However, it has already proved worthwhile for me and I hope that you are well pleased with it.

Shalom,
Sue Winters

Growth
an ultimate drive for PERFECTION
often failing—
. . . and leading to DESTRUCTION
of that which is most beautiful Lakes, streams
—everflowing . . .
being reborn with each new wave.

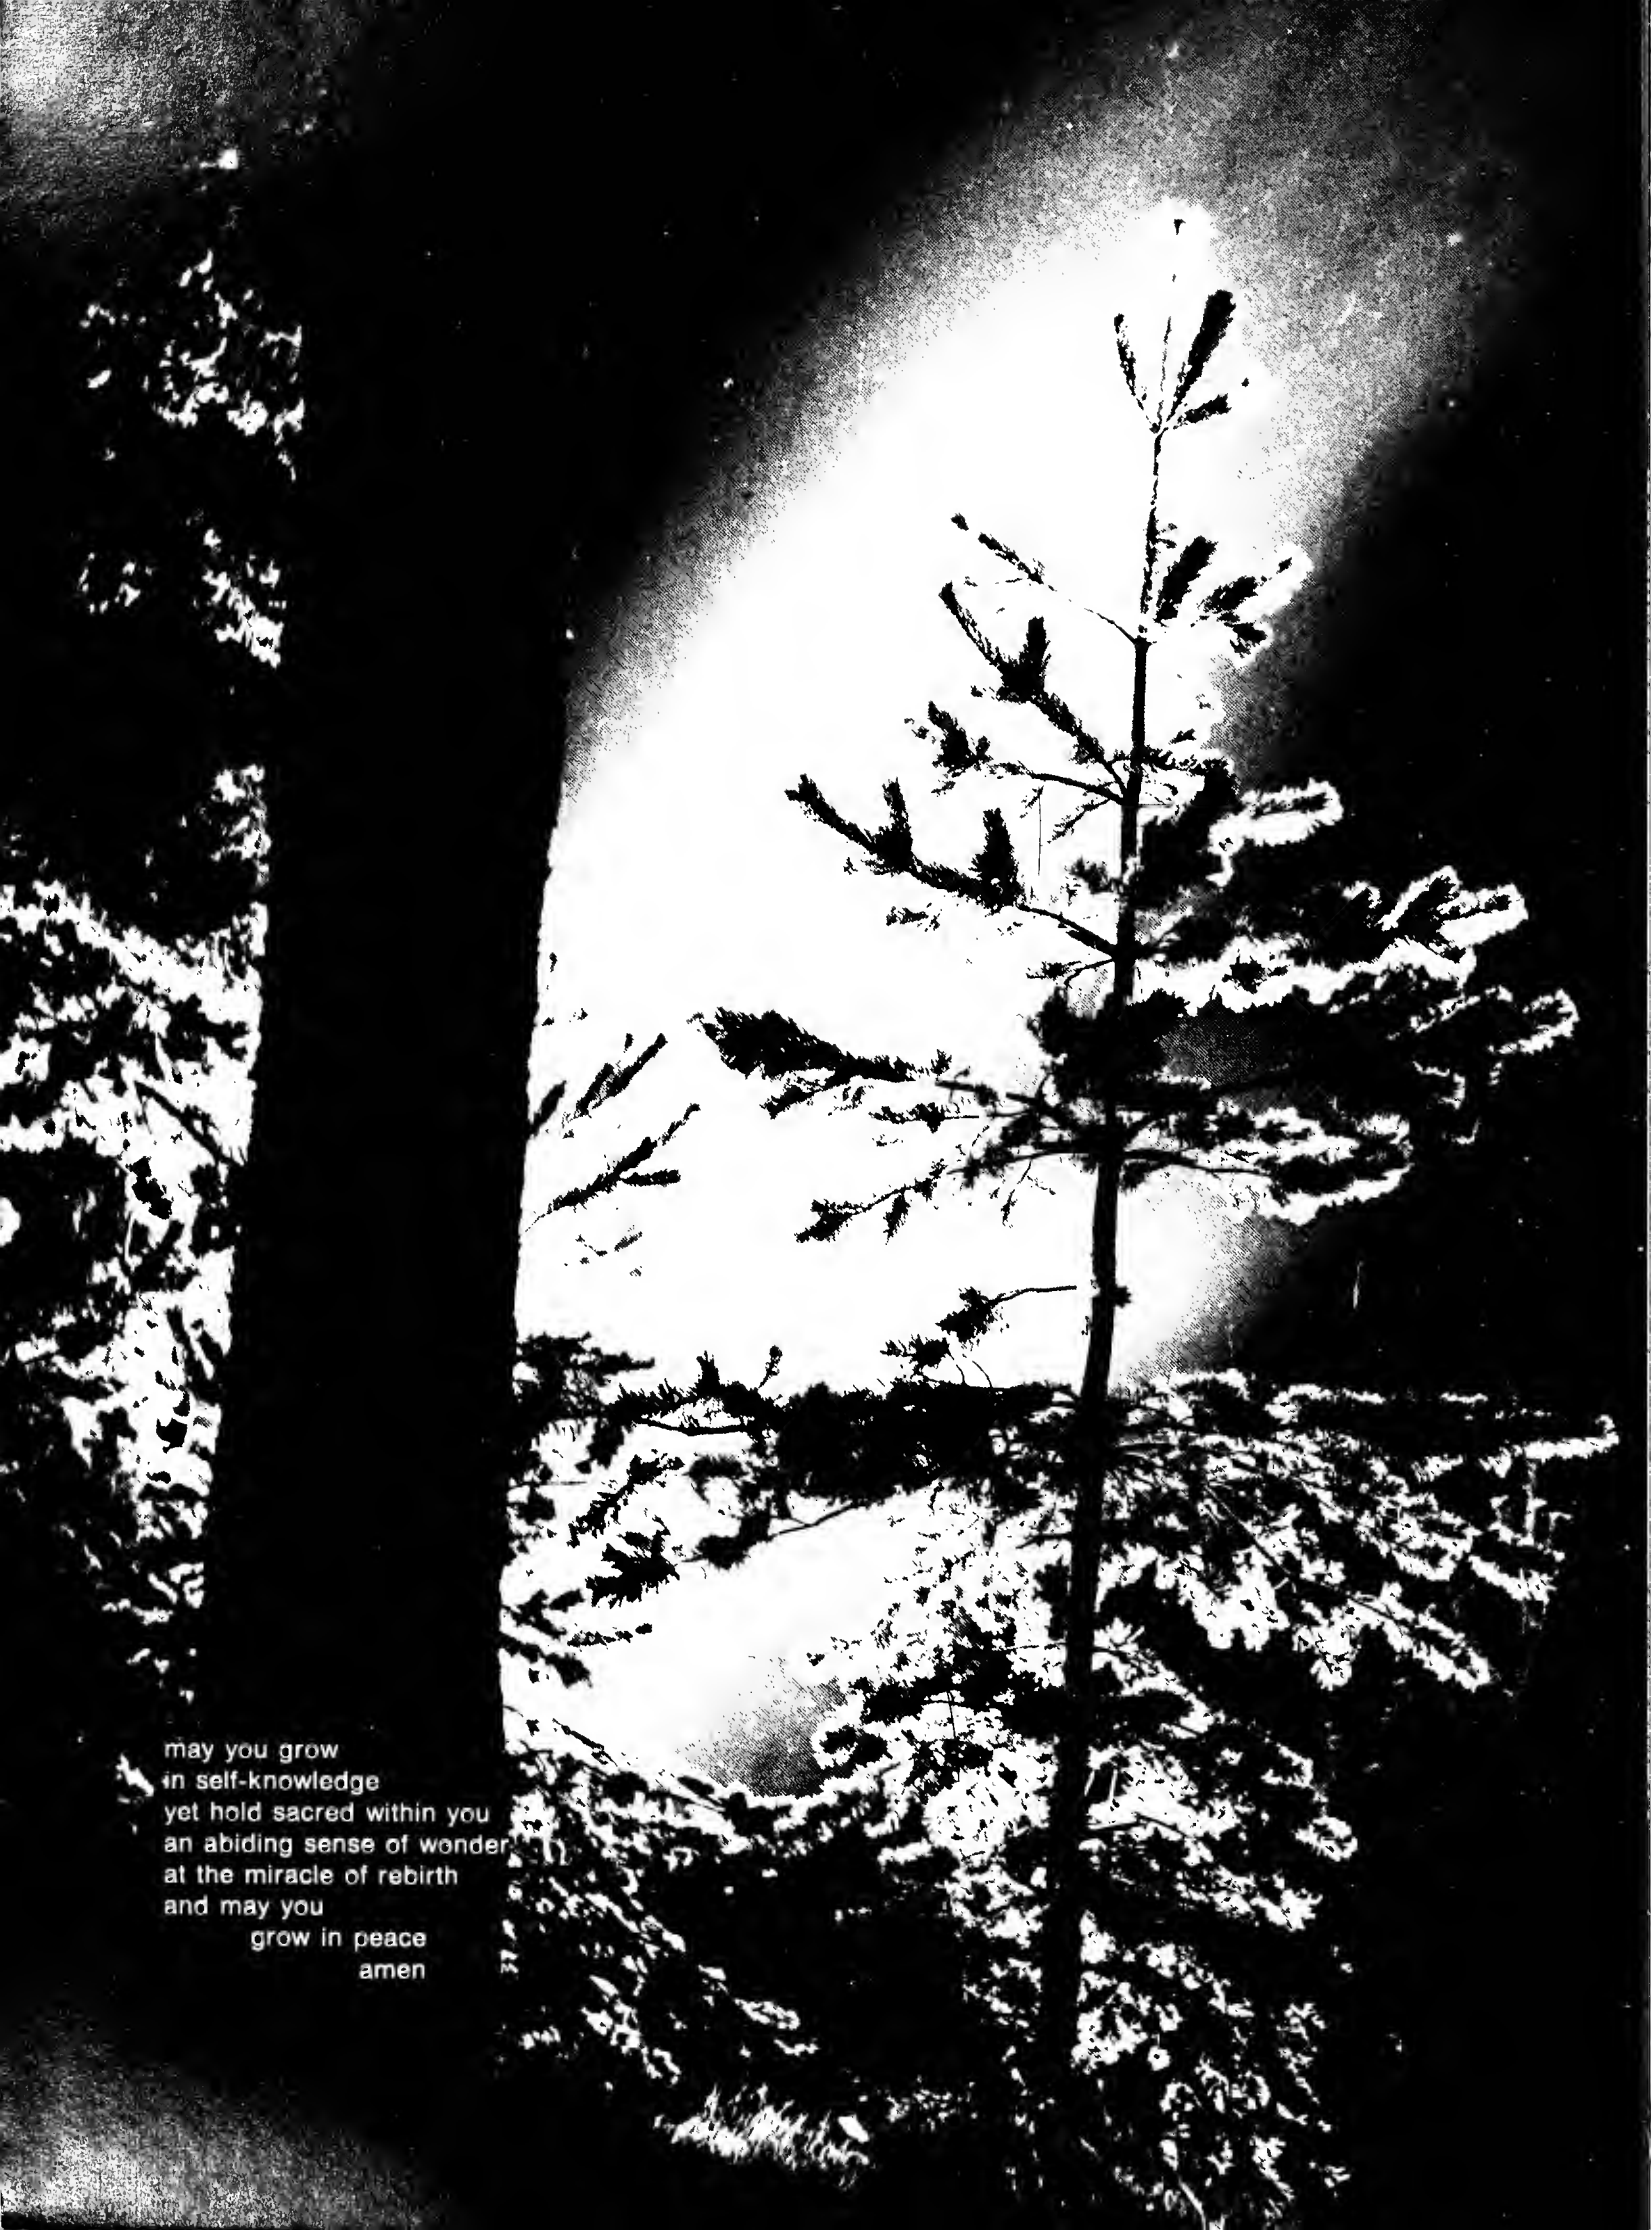

Suddenly,
PROGRESS interferes . . .
a lake dies
filthygarbagelitter
smear
that once magnificent creation . . .

awaiting only one small hand
to set it in order.

"Preservation is not an enemy of Progress . . . it is progress!"

may you grow
in self-knowledge
yet hold sacred within you an abiding sense of wonder at the miracle of rebirth and may you
grow in peace
